THE BUSINESS MEETING

STRONG TREND THE THREE-PIECE SUIT

A return to vintage suits from the 1920's and 1940's. Structured and modern multi button waistcoats are back for the boardroom, meetings and power lunches.

DETAIL

Second skin jackets, corset like waistcoats and slim fit trousers that cling to the body – especially on the shoulders, chest and along the waist.

STYLING

Avoid colour contrasts and go tone on tone. Wear light or dark shades of the same colour on the shirt and tie. Opt for grey or blue for the day.

MY TIP

Always match the accessories (belts, bags and shoes) to the colour palette of your suit.

STRONG TREND – LAID-BACK SUITS

A relaxed or comfort fit for ‘dress down’ suits. I recommend flat lapels and soft fabrics for jackets and short knee length overcoats for travel.

DETAIL

Soft, crease free fabrics for shirts and suits, wide collars and relaxed shoulders on jackets and overcoats.

STYLING

Mix and match your wardrobe - put together overcoats, shirts, trousers and accessories from different sets to create an entirely new look.

MY TIP

Undo the tie, unbutton or loose the jacket and roll up your sleeves when you are

STRONG TREND - A TUX OR A VELVET NEHRU STYLE JACKET FOR FORMAL OCCASIONS

Wear a jacket with a short and slim lapel. The Nehru or Chinese collar will give you a structured and smart look and fit.

DETAIL

High gloss shoes and heavy-duty metallic watches for formal and eveningwear. Ruffled printed or coloured pocket squares for jacket pockets.

STYLING

Dress your jacket with a bow instead of a tie. Red, purple, burgundy and white are ideal choices. Reflective metallic buttons for hip length short jackets and a comfort fit trousers for lowers.

MY TIP

Choose jewel tones of (emerald) green, (sapphire) blue, (amethyst) purple, (ruby) red look or (smoky) charcoal grey for stand alone jackets.

Look #4
TRAVEL & LEISURE

STRONG TREND
Textured or printed short jackets with trousers. Fabrics with self-design or texture and prints – stripes or paisleys. Slim or tapered cuts, defined shoulders and a tailored look for casual or semi formal jackets.

DETAIL

Wide collared jackets and broad or rounded collars for shirts. Structured shoulders on jackets and comfortable and casual footwear worn without socks.

STYLING

Linen jackets for the club, flight or at the resort and raw silk for an early evening engagement, a drink at the bar or a dinner date or meeting.

MY TIP

Add a dash of colour for leisurewear. Emphasise on contrasting coloured accessories or multi coloured prints.
